Items to be completed in Proof of Claim form

Court, Name of Debtor, and Case Number:

Fill in the federal judicial district where the bankruptcy case was filed (for example, Central District of California), the bankruptcy debtor's name, and the bankruptcy case number. Creditor's Name and Address:

Fill in the name of the person or entity asserting a claim and the name and address of the person who should receive notices issued during the bankruptcy case. A separate space is provided for the payment address if it differs from the notice address. The creditor has a continuing obligation to keep the court informed of its current address. See Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure (FRBP) 2002(g).

1. Amount of Claim as of Date Case Filed:

State the total amount owed to the creditor on the date of the Bankruptcy filing. Follow the instructions concerning whether to complete items 4 and 5. Check the box if interest or other charges are included in the claim.

A claim may be partly priority and partly non-priority. For example, in some of the categories, the law limits the amount entitled to priority.

6. Credits:

An authorized signature on this proof of claim serves as an acknowledgment that when calculating the amount of the claim, the creditor gave the debtor credit for any payments received toward the debt.

7. Documents:

Attach to this proof of claim form redacted copies documenting the existence of the debt and of any lien securing the debt. You may also attach a summary. DEFINITIONS

Debtor

A debtor is the person, corporation, or other entity that has filed a bankruptcy case.

Creditor

A creditor is the person, corporation, or other entity owed a debt by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing.

Claim

A claim is the creditor's right to receive payment on a debt that was owed by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. See 11 U.S.C. §101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Proof of Claim

A proof of claim is a form used by the creditor to indicate the amount of the debt owed by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. The creditor must file the form with the clerk of the same bankruptcy court in which the bankruptcy case was filed.

Secured Claim Under 11 U.S.C. §506(a)

A secured claim is one backed by a lien on property of the debtor. The claim is secured so long as the creditor has the right to be paid from the property prior to other creditors. The amount of the secured claim cannot exceed the value of the property. Any amount owed to the creditor in excess of the value of the property is an unsecured claim. Examples of liens on property include a mortgage on real estate or a security interest in a car.

A lien may be voluntarily granted by a debtor or may be obtained through a court proceeding. In some states, a court judgment is a lien. A claim also may be secured if the creditor owes the debtor money (has a right to setoff).

Unsecured Claim

An unsecured claim is one that does not meet the requirements of a secured claim. A claim may be partly unsecured if the amount of the claim exceeds the value of the property on which the creditor has a lien.

Claim Entitled to Priority Under 11 U.S.C. §507(a)

Priority claims are certain categories of unsecured claims that are paid from the available money or property in a bankruptcy case before other unsecured claims.

Redacted

A document has been redacted when the person filing it has masked, edited out, or otherwise deleted, certain information. A creditor should redact and use only the last four digits of any social-security, individual's tax-identification, or financial-account number, all but the initials of a minor's name and only the year of any person's date of birth.

Evidence of Perfection

Evidence of perfection may include a mortgage, lien, certificate of title, financing statement, or other document showing that the lien has been filed or recorded.

INFORMATION

Acknowledgment of Filing of Claim

To receive acknowledgment of your filing, you may either enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and a copy of this proof of claim or you may access the court's PACER system (www.pacer.psc.uscourts.gov) for a small fee to view your filed proof of claim.

Offers to Purchase a Claim

Certain entities are in the business of purchasing claims for an amount less than the face value of the claims. One or more of these entities may contact the creditor and offer to purchase the claim. Some of the written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court or the debtor. The creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if the creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of such claim is subject to FRBP 3001(e), any applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.), and any applicable orders of the bankruptcy court.

2. Basis for Claim

The amount of claim listed in Item 1 (the "Claim Amount") stems from various failed deliveries or settlement of forward mortgage contracts entered into by the Creditor with Lehman Brothers, Inc. (the "Debtor"). These transactions are commonly referred to in the financial industry as "TBA trades." In each case the trades were entered into prior to the filing of the bankruptcy case and were terminated pursuant to industry-wide protocols. In accordance with such protocols, the claim amount on each trade was calculated by either replacing the trade in the open market or obtaining market quotes for a potential replacement trade.

The Claim Amount is an aggregate amount of all trades where a payable is due to the Creditor, and Creditor retains its right of setoff against any amounts due to the Debtor. We have provided individual trade details as well.

7. Documentation

We attach the following documentation:

- a. Aggregate Claim and Exposure Information
- b. Trade tickets for individual TBA Trades
- c. Copies of the Notice of Termination Letters Submitted to the SIPC Trustee
- d. Calculation of Gain/Loss for each terminated trade.

General Statement

Creditor hereby reserves all rights to amend and supplement this Proof of Claim from time to time to, among other things, restate the Claim Amount. Creditor hereby also reserves, to the extent not exercised, any rights of setoff or recoupment it may have against the Debtor.

This Proof of Claim is being submitted prior to the deadline for Customer Claims. We request that, to the extent permissible, this Proof of Claim qualify as a Customer Claim and that such claim receive the full benefit of being a Customer Claim.

This Proof of Claim is filed under the compulsion of the bar date established in this matter and is filed, for among other reasons, to protect Creditor from the forfeiture of its claims by reason of said bar date. The filing of this Proof of Claim is not and shall not be deemed or construed as a waiver or release of Creditor's rights against any person, entity or property, or any other right, remedy, claim or defense of Creditor whatsoever.
